Mother's Day Event Silent Auction

Thank you to all of the volunteers who helped get items together for previous years' silent auctions. We are once again counting on your dedicated support and generous hearts to help make this year's auction a success. Please consider donating your unused/unwanted gifts that you may have been storing for some time. We will be collecting items through Friday April 2nd. Please contact Geralyn Oldham at 314.894.0745 or gao4801@charter.net about donating your items. Thank you again for all your past support and all the support I know we will have this year.

Mother's Day Event!

Our third annual "Celebrating Motherhood" luncheon will be held at SqWires on Saturday, April 24 this year. This is a wonderful day out to celebrate you, your mother, mother-in-law, sister, family members and friends while supporting MtM. Along with a fantastic lunch, we have our silent auction and cake auction. Our Clinical Advisor, Dr. Diane Saford will be our guest speaker. This event is one of two large fundraisers we hold each year. We hope you can attend, please help us pass word of the event on to others.

Welcome!

To our newest board member, Laura Musbach Drake. Laura has two children and owns her own event planning business, Splendor Event Services. She has many years of experience working with nonprofit organizations and the St. Louis Community. We look forward to Laura joining our organization!

Promotional Video

Filming began this week, today we visited with Jennifer Martin and her beautiful children. She did a great job talking about her experience and how MtM helped in her recover. Abby Sophir is producing the video, she is a student at Ladue High School. She is working well with our volunteers and learning all different aspects of our organization.

Phone Volunteers

I want to send a special thanks out to our phone volunteers who helped take moms the last two weeks or so, we had an influx of calls and it was hectic. It is comforting to know that I can count on you to come through when needed, and our moms really appreciate the support.

Angela Borisch Staples, Director of Volunteers

Thank You!

Thank you to Kellie Flacke, Jennifer Martin and Geralyn Oldham for recent prenatal presentations. If you are interested in helping with these please let me know and I can walk you through the process.

Volunteer Opportunities:

Now is time to consider helping with the Mother's Day Event. As it stands, about ten volunteers will be needed that day to help set-up, welcome our guests, check out guests, etc. Let me know if you would like to volunteer that day.

Webmaster Needed: Our current webmaster will be having another baby soon, and needs to lighten her load. Managing the website is a light load, interesting, and full of creative opportunities for someone who knows HTML or is comfortable developing websites. If you're interested, please email Ann Book at ann@adbook.net for more details. Thank you!
